I have pre-existing commitments on the 30th, 31st, and 8th, which have me out of the office in King County and Olympia. These are all day commitments involving multiple parties, so changes would be very difficult for me.

I hope we can work around this.
THANKS

Good morning all,

I just completed a conference call with Ms. Sesko's lawyer and the court administrator. Ms. Sesko is not available on Wednesday this week, so we will not be going out this week at all. We will hear from the court administrator on Friday, January 25 whether we will be going out Monday, January 28.

Do any of you have conflicts the week of January 28 or the week of February 4? If so, please let me know the dates of your conflicts.

Judge Roof will be taken off the criminal trial calendar and placed on the general trial calendar on February 4. Since criminal trials have priority over our hearing, we have had difficulty getting a date when Judge Roof is available for our case. Therefore, if we don't go next week, there is a good chance we can get a date certain the first week in February...but we've all heard that before.

Thanks for your patience. Call or email with any questions.

-Mark

Mark-

Peter will not be available on Wednesday because he has a pre-existing commitment that he can't cancel. He is available other days next week. Please let me know what will work and we will get it on his calendar. Thank you.

Regards,
Amber Anderson

P.S. I am Peter's assistant. Just wanted you to know that I am going to handle a lot of his scheduling from now on.

The court administrator said that we will not go on Tuesday, but there is good chance we will go out on Wednesday. We should know Tuesday afternoon. I will call or email you then. Thanks.
